

Admission of Advocates and Solicitors - Mass Call 2019 Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

1. Can I bring extra guest(s) / have extra invitation cards for the Mass Call?

Each applicant is entitled to 2 invitation cards for their guests. All invitation cards must be collected by the applicant personally at the Mass Call Briefing

2. I'm not able to attend the Mass Call Briefing, what should I do and can I still have the invitation cards for my guests?

Given the large number of applicants, attendance at the Mass Call Briefing is compulsory for all applicants seeking admission at Mass Call, which will be held on Wednesday, 21 August 2019 at 9.00AM. This is to ensure the smooth running of the Mass Call.

3. Can I have the invitation cards for Mass Call mailed to my home address?

No. All invitation cards must be collected by the applicant personally at the Mass Call Briefing

4. What if I can't attend the Mass Call in August, are there any alternative dates?

The next Monthly Call dates after the Mass Call on 27 and 28 August 2019 will be on 11 September 2019, 9 October 2019 and 13 November 2019.

5. Do I need to bring my supervising solicitor during Mass Call?

No, each applicant is not required to bring his/her supervising solicitor on that day. A Common Mover will be arranged during the Mass Call.

6. Is there a dress code for applicants who will be called at the Mass Call?

As Mass Call is a court hearing, the dress code for an applicant at the Mass Call is court attire as set out in paragraph 17 of the Supreme Court Practice Directions, namely:

- (1) Male applicant: Gown worn over an ordinary long-sleeved white shirt with a turn-down collar, a tie of subdued or sober colour, a dark jacket, dark trousers and black or plain coloured shoes.
- (2) Female applicant: Gown worn over a long-sleeved white blouse high to the neck, a dark jacket, a dark skirt or dark trousers and black or plain coloured shoes. Conspicuous jewellery or ornaments should not be worn.

An applicant who is not dressed in accordance with the court attire set out above will be taken off the Hearing List and will not be allowed to participate in the Mass Call.

7. What do I need to bring for the Mass Call?

An applicant seeking admission at Mass Call is to bring his/her gown, a blue pen and his/her Identification Card/NRIC for registration. More details will be given at the Mass Call Briefing.
