

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE REPUBLIC OF SINGAPORE

REGISTRAR'S CIRCULAR NO. 3 OF 1999

JUDICIAL MANAGEMENT ORDERS

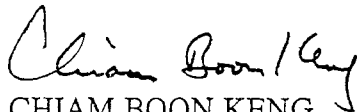

Rule 40 of the Companies Regulations requires the petitioner to publish the Judicial Management Order in the Gazette and in the English and Chinese newspapers within three days of the order.

2 It has been brought to the attention of The Honourable the Chief Justice that there have been recent cases where counsel acting for the petitioner has asked for an extension of time to comply with this rule. In these cases it has been submitted that, as the Gazette is published on Fridays and motions are heard on the same day, it would not be physically possible to comply with this rule as the next issue of the Gazette would be seven days away.

3 It appears that counsel making these applications for extension of time are not aware, or have forgotten, that the Interpretation Act was amended by Act 25 of 1998 with effect from 10 Jul 98 to provide for publication of the Gazette in electronic form. The electronic Gazette is now published five days a week, from Mondays to Fridays. On Fridays, the paper form Gazette is also published.

4 Publication in the English newspaper has presented no problems. To assist solicitors with regard to the publication of Form 63 J in the Chinese newspaper, a standard translation to which the short particulars can be added quickly for publication is enclosed herewith.
